CONSENT DETERMINATION OF THE AUTHORITY

Employment relationship problem

[1] At today's investigation meeting the parties advised the Authority that they had reached a settlement of all issues between. The terms and conditions of this settlement are recorded in a confidential Terms of Settlement agreement which was signed by both parties today ("the Settlement").

[2] By consent the specific terms recorded in the Settlement which agreed to and signed by the parties today now become the orders of the Authority. As orders of the Authority the terms of the Settlement are therefore final binding and enforceable.

[3] The parties have agreed that the terms of their Settlement are to remain confidential. For the purposes of preserving confidentiality I make a further order pursuant clause 10 of the Second Schedule of the Employment Relations Act 2000 prohibiting the publication of the Settlement.

[4] The original signed Settlement is therefore not attached to this determination but will instead be held on the Authority's file.
