Employment relationship problem

[1] During the investigation meeting, at my invitation, the representatives took time to talk with one another and their respective clients. The result of those discussions is an agreement about how to finally resolve this employment relationship problem. That agreement was written out and signed by both parties.

[2] By consent the terms of the parties' agreement dated 11 December 2007 become the orders of the Authority.

[3] As requested by the parties I make a further order prohibiting the publication of any of the terms of the parties' agreement
