[2] In the Court's minute of 16 May 2012 I directed:

Unless the parties pay the security ordered and/or take some other step in the proceeding or counsel for them is able to persuade the Court why it should not dismiss the challenges for want of prosecution, within six weeks of the date of this minute, the challenges will be dismissed for want of prosecution except as to costs which will then be dealt with on any application by the defendant.

[3] This minute was sent to counsel for the plaintiffs but no step has been taken by them or other response received by the Registrar.

[4] Accordingly, the plaintiffs' challenges are dismissed for want of prosecution with leave for the defendant to apply for costs.
